

CUNNINGHAM'S CORNER

Creativity, on Full Display

It is perhaps the biggest weekend of the Hello Again, Dolly! festivities.

We have advance coverage on page 1, and will have still more next week. That this kind of thing can be done here, and done well, is emblematic of Philipstown.

Christopher Radko has done yeoman work in shepherding this to fruition. And if you haven't seen the original movie, Hello, Dolly!, you must. Among other reasons, for its depiction of Garrison and Garrison's Landing as Yonkers in 1890. Besides the scenery, some wonderful performances, including from Barbra Streisand and Walter Matthau.
